LEARN WITH THE BEST!

Over 150 children and young people currently participate in CUI

An additional 120 young musicians are members of the Cross Border Orchestra of Ireland (CBOI)

Many now studying music at university

More than 30% achieve Distinctions in ABRSM music exams

Modelled on the world-renowned 'El Sistema' method of music education, based on group learning and performance

IS THIS PROGRAMME RIGHT FOR YOU?

Ideal for families committed to serious music study and future participation in the CBOI

Parents may be required to attend lessons with their child

100% attendance and commitment to Sunday lessons is essential

Daily practice at home is required

All students must sit the ABRSM music exam each year

Violin should be started as early as possible due to its difficulty

Trombone and Double Bass are recommended for children aged 12 and over

Count Us In is more than just lessons – it's a pathway to excellence and a stepping stone to the Cross Border Orchestra of Ireland.
